Everyday Saints

Everyday things, relationships with other people, daily work, love of our family — all these may breed saints in everyday life.

Jesus of Nazareth taught us to live every hour of the day as saints. Every hour of the day is useful and may lead to divine inspiration, the will of the Father, the prayer of contemplation — holiness. Every hour of the day is holy. What matters is to live it as Jesus taught us.

And for this, one does not have to shut oneself in a monastery or fix strange and inhumane [regimens] for one's life. It is enough to accept the realities of life. Work is one of these realities; motherhood, the rearing of children, family life with all its obligations are others.

~ Carlo Carretto, Letters From the Desert

We thank the Lord- so much-for these everyday saints who make our church the living, breathing, active house of worship that it is! It wouldn't happen without these joyful volunteers who serve. Thanksgiving truly is a season to reflect on our blessings and give thanks for all of you!
