By Leah Krotz, Librarian

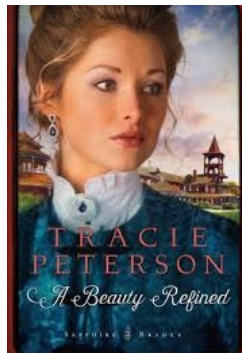

Books and DVDs are available on the shelves in the back of the church and in the library room upstairs. To check one out, just remove the card from the pocket, write your name and the date on it, and place it in the box. There are separate boxes for the church shelves and the library room. When you return your items to the back of the church, put the card back in the pocket and place the book on the shelf. If the item was checked out from the library room, just leave it on top of the bookcase (next to the check-out box) and I'll put it back on the shelf.

What if Christmas bypassed your town?

Though their priorities clash, Roni and Jake both want the same thing—the little town of Nativity, Missouri to prosper. Will they discover the real wealth of Nativity—and the season?

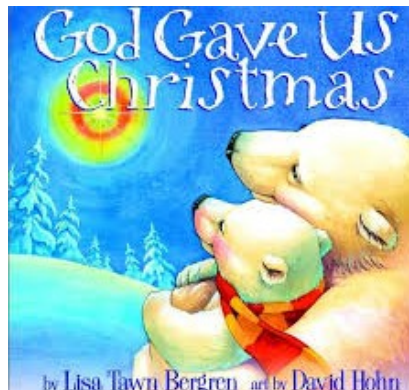

Phoebe Von Bergen, the daughter of a German count, is excited to visit America while her father purchases sapphires in Montana. Little does she know, however, that her father's intentions—both for her and the gems—are not what she thinks.

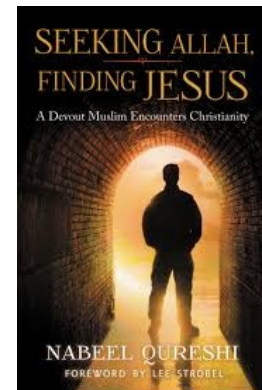

When her husband dies suddenly, Clara Vesper is stunned—not sure what will become of herself and her children. She takes them to her aunt and uncle's ranch in Montana, the only place she has ever been happy. But instead of peace, she finds that dangerous secrets threaten.

Jenny Higgins is certain that falling in love and finding a husband are matters of the mind. Her heart has other plans. To relinquish her control to God and calm her restless spirit, she'll need to give up her foregone conclusions about marriage, love, and faith.

As Little Cub and her family prepare to celebrate, the curious young polar bear begins to wonder, "Who invented Christmas?" This enchanting tale provides the perfect opportunity to help young children celebrate the true meaning of Christmas.

In this thought-provoking book, Nabeel Qureshi describes his dramatic journey from devout Islam to Christianity, as he discovers, against his will, evidence that Jesus rose from the dead and claimed to be God. "This book will feed your heart and mind." ~Josh McDowell
